Billy Barquedier

National Park

In the jungles of the Maya mountains, majestically looking over the emerald valley lies an enchanting protected area nestled in the Stann Creek District. Located just along the Hummingbird Highway on mile 17.5 in the village of Steadfast, renowned for its stunning natural beauty and ecological significance, the Billy Barquedier National Park covers 1,639 acres of lush rainforests, diverse wildlife, and breathtaking natural beauty. The park is home to a wide array of plant and animal species, including rare and endangered ones. Its pristine ecosystems provide essential habitats for wildlife, contributing to the overall health and balance of the region's ecology.

GEM OF THE EMARLD VALLEY

Visitors can explore pristine nature trails and observe breathtaking views. On a quiet hike through the jungle, one may come across a tapir trail, gibnuts, howler monkeys, or even a jaguar. To cool off, you can take a dip in the rejuvenating waters of the Billy Barquedier Falls. Whether you are an experienced hiker, a wildlife enthusiast, or just someone looking to get away for a couple hours, Billy Barquedier National Park has something to offer everyone.
