

Elijio Panti National Park

ITZAMNA SOCIETY

We are the modern people, the Maya of Belize. Our goal is to protect and sustain the land we live upon, as well as the 12,600 acres that make up the Elijio Panti National Park

Phone: +501- 671-1753
Itzamna Society

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

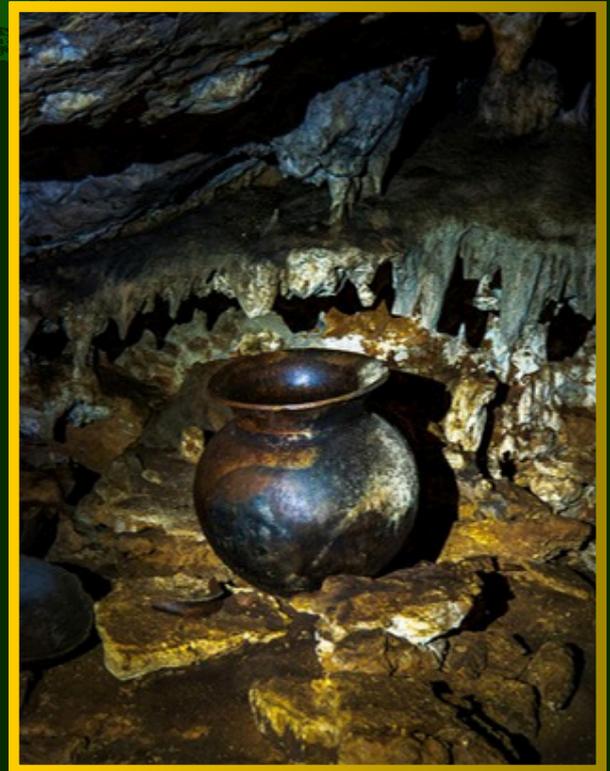

Elijio Panti

National Park

The Elijio Panti National Park is a harmonious blend of conservation, cultural heritage, and natural wonder. Spanning a vast expanse of approximately 4,300 acres, this park is a treasure trove of biodiversity, while preserving its natural and cultural heritage. The tropical forest envelops visitors in its lush embrace, inviting them to discover hidden gems in the heart of Belize's wilderness. Established in 1992, Elijio Panti National Park pays homage to Don Elijio Panti, a revered traditional Maya healer. Through sustainable ecotourism initiatives, the park empowers its buffering communities, providing key environmental services and creating opportunities for economic development while preserving the natural environment.

TRULY WILD!

Elijio Panti National Park is a dream come to life for nature enthusiasts, offering a multitude of activities to connect with the natural world. Guided tours are a fantastic way to explore the park's diverse ecosystem, led by knowledgeable guides who share insights into the intricate web of life within. Whether you're a hiker, birder, or simply seeking to immerse yourself in the beauty of nature, this park has something for everyone.

